"THANKSGIVING"

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH CROWDED BOTH MORNING AND EVENING

Rev. W. E. Edmonds preached the annual Thanksgiving sermon in the Presbyterian Church yesterday in connection with the annual "Praise Service" of the Missionary Department of the Woman's Society. His subject was "The Lost Commission" and the text was taken from Genesis, the 4th chapter and 9th verse. "Am I my brother's keeper?" God asked, "Where is thy brother?" and man answered, "I do not know; am I my brother's keeper?" "Evangelism" was the heart of the service. The anthem by the choir, the duet by Miss Cox and Mrs. Retts, and after the sermon a solo by Mrs. Retts were all exceptionally beautiful and in keeping with the sermon.

At the evening service Rev. Edmonds gave the first chapter of Sidney Watson's great masterpiece, "In the Twinkling of an Eye." The church was full and the audience showed its interest and appreciation. Dr. Will Marple gave a tenor solo to the delight of all present.

At Sunday School in the morning the members brought fruit and staples for the Mexican Church of the Divine Saviour in Los Angeles. Two boxes of red Thanksgiving apples were given by Miss Mary Wilkin's class.

The Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor had special Thanksgiving invitations for their evening service which they endeavored to hand to all the young people at the close of the morning sermon.

The entire day was one of rejoicing and thanksgiving to God.

"Let us come before His presence with thanksgiving, and make a great King above all gods." Ps. 95:2, 3.

FLOOD CONTROL WORK

While crews employed in flood control work in Glendale are pushing forward toward the Los Angeles river to the west of us, it is interesting to know what is happening to that stream further south. According to information published in the Southwest Builder and Contractor, work on the river protection work at Fruitland, near Vernon, is being pushed by the Los Angeles county flood control district. A permanent channel for the Los Angeles river is being created by constructing a dike of sand 40 feet wide and 15 feet high, two miles in length. Two locomotives and a steam shovel are being used, a spur track of the Salt Lake Ry. having been laid on top of the dike. Three shifts of workmen are employed. The dike is being faced with rock rip-rap from Declez quarry. A double row of wood piles with Elwood fencing is being placed between the dike and the main channel of the river and rubbish is being dumped between the rows of piling. The improvement is designed to protect the industrial districts of Huntington Park and Laguna Bell. Jas. W. Reagan, chief engineer of the flood control district, expects to have the work finished before the first heavy rains.

COME FROM INDIANA

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. McCulloch, who recently came from Indiana and who are guests in the home of their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Peart, of 111 East Elk avenue, have purchased property on North Kenwood at or near 412. They will not be able to get possession, however, until the first of the year. It is the first visit of the McCullochs to this state and they had intended to rent and make a test of residence here before buying, but not finding what they wanted under a lease they have bought instead in the expectation of becoming permanent residents.

COMMITTEEWOMEN ENTERTAINED

Mrs. A. D. McCoy, of 1127 East Wilson avenue, Friday afternoon entertained members of the Hospitality Committee of the Tuesday afternoon Club, of which she is chairman. Tower, president; Mesdames L. W. Sinclair, David Gregg, John Stauffacher, R. P. Isitt, Louis Richardson, Ed M. Lee, Ray Phillips, G. H. Rowe, Frank Hester F. C. Braden, J. J. Shropshire and the hostess.

MEMBERS DELIGHTFULLY ENTERTAINED AT HOME OF ELDER J. A. STEVENS

Responding to the invitation of the Parent-Teachers' Association of the Glendale Seventh-day Adventist church school, a company of one hundred twenty-six gathered at the home of Elder J. A. Stevens, 127 S. Everett street, Saturday night. Mothers, fathers, teachers, students and others who are in sympathy with the educational work were there.

Upon the invitation of Mrs. J. D. Baker, president of the association, Elder J. A. Stevens gave a brief address of welcome to those assembled. Following his address these numbers were given by young people at the church and school:

Violin Solo—Dorothy Wheeler.
Chorus—Seven Girls.
Piano Solo—Doris Miller.
Reading—Catherine Livingstone.

Short speeches were given by Prof. H. G. Lucas, superintendent of church schools; Dr. C. A. Burrows, chairman of the school board; Mrs. W. G. Wheatley, principal of the church school; Mr. Smith, Mrs. Towler and Mrs. D. Miller, also teachers in the school.

A short intermission was taken to allow all to become acquainted. As a means to this end each one wore an emblem of his native state or country. It was ascertained that 22 states were represented from California to New York; also the countries of England, Canada, Norway and Southern Africa.

Following the intermission additional numbers were given as follows:

Chorus—Seven Girls.

Piano Solo—Leona Price.
Reading—Mrs. Wheatley.

A vote of thanks was given to Elder Stephens and family for the hospitality of their home for this occasion of benefit and pleasure.

TENNESSEEAN SURPRISED

Mrs. M. T. Hatcher, who is a new comer from Tennessee and who recently purchased property at 216 South Adams street, was pleasantly surprised a few afternoons ago by a group of friends who came from the same part of Tennessee that she did and who like herself are now residents of Glendale. The party included Mrs. J. V. Stewart, Mrs. W. W. Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. Hearn Robinson, Mrs. W. S. Miller, Mrs. G. E. Alexander, Teddie Robinson, Lester Alexander, Frances Smith and Lorraine Hatcher. The guests brought bountiful refreshments and a dinner was served to the company out of doors.

AMERICAN LEGION DANCE

The second dance given by the Glendale Post, No. 117, of the American Legion, Saturday evening, at the Masonic Temple, was one of the finest dances held in this city for some time. From the time Harry Rose's Jazz Band started on its tour of syncopation of fox trots, one-steps and waltzes, until the last strains of Home Sweet Home were played, there was not one dull moment and all had the time of their life.

The entertainment committee, consisting of John Dunn, Gordon Clayton and Wayne Smith deserve a world of credit for their splendid work in making it such a great success. It is hoped that they will continue to make the social side of the club a big factor in the organization.

The American Legion at this time wishes to thank its many friends who are helping to make these social affairs such a great success and also to furnish the Club Rooms. Announcements for the next dance will be made in the next two weeks.

W. R. C. MEMBERS ENTERTAINED

Quite a delegation of Glendale ladies prominent in the Woman's Relief Corps of N. P. Banks Post visited Ocean Park Friday afternoon in response to the invitation of the Corps of that city, which also entertained representatives of the Sawtelle and Pasadena Corps. It was an inspection meeting at which the Department officers, headed by Grace Willard, president, were present, and following the exercises a banquet was served. About 250 ladies were in attendance, the group from Glendale including Mrs. C. L. Peckham, president; Mrs. Flora Pixley, Mrs. Burns, Mrs. Quintina Hammond, Mrs. Mary Milligan, Mrs. Richards, Mrs. Susan Hayes and others.

CARRANZA'S REPLY TO BE EVASIVE

AN ULTIMATUM TO MEXICO IS EXPECTED TO FOLLOW ANY SIDE-STEPPING OF ISSUE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—It is expected that President Carranza's reply to the American note in the Jenkins case will be received here today or tomorrow. It was reported in Washington today that it will be evasive in tone.

Word was passed through official circles that Carranza's reply would hold that Jenkins was not entitled to immunity from arrest as a diplomat, and will hold that the case is one for the Mexican courts alone.

It is expected that an ultimatum to Mexico will follow any side-stepping on the issue.

CASE OF CONSULAR AGENT JENKINS

STRAINED RELATIONS WITH U. S. GOVERNMENT NOT REGARDED SERIOUSLY BY MEXICAN PEOPLE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

MEXICO CITY, Mex., Nov. 24.—The Mexican public is showing the greatest interest in the case of William Jenkins, American consular agent, imprisoned at Puebla, Mexico. Despite this interest, however, only one newspaper (and it was of secondary importance) comments on the case. It is believed that others are withholding comment until the Mexican answer to the American note is made public.

The public in general apparently considers that there will be no crisis with America and that the American note is nothing new in American-Mexican relations.

PRESIDENT AT WORK ON MESSAGE

IT WILL CONCERN RAILROAD LEGISLATION AND RATIFICATION OF PEACE TREATY OR ALTERNATIVE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—The president has been informed that all of the seventeen men whom he invited to form a new industrial conference to take the place of the round-table conference which failed, probably would accept. He today began drafting his message to the opening session of this conference December 1st after talking over the industrial situation with his associates.

The White House reports this morning that the president continues to improve steadily.

Although not handling all of the routine business of the executive office, the president is engaged in writing a message to Congress on the peace treaty; the consideration of the selection of successors to Secretaries Glass and Redfield; studying the coal strike situation; and holding numerous conferences with Secretary Tumulty.

It is understood that the main features of the president's message to Congress will be insistence on the quick passage of railroad legislation; reiteration of his intention to return the roads to private ownership January 1st; strong recommendations for Americanization legislation; and either ratification of the peace treaty or the adoption of a program of heavily increased armament.

It was admitted today that the Mexican situation will be called to the president's attention if President Carranza does not have Consular Agent Jenkins released immediately.

FRISCO BAY SHIPYARDS REOPEN

EMPLOYERS DECLARE TWENTY-FIVE PER CENT OF MEN HAVE RETURNED TO WORK IN OPEN SHOP

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 24.—The San Francisco Bay District shipyards which were closed by strikes October 1st, reopened this morning on a strictly open-shop basis.

Employers claim that ten thousand men of the original forces which totalled 40,000 have returned to work. Union leaders claim this figure is excessive.

Union pickets surrounded all the yards but there were no disturbances and no attempt was made by the pickets or others to prevent the men from going to work.

The employers announced in a formal statement that they would recognize the right of their employes to bargain collectively with their own employers and to organize, but that the yards would be strictly open shops.

GOVERNOR DAVIS TO TAKE A HAND

HOLDS BACK STATE TROOPS TO TOUR COAL FIELDS IN ATTEMPT TO RESTORE ORDER AND GOOD FEELING

RICHMOND, Nov. 24.—State troops en route to the coal fields of Lee and Wise counties have been ordered held at Roanoke, Va., while Governor Davis attempts to bring about the arbitration of the difficulties in the coal region.

The troops started for the coal fields during the night when it was reported that the miners of Lee and Wise counties had armed themselves with machine guns. It is understood the governor plans to make an immediate tour of the coal region and attempt to restore order and good feeling.

NEW CARD CLUB

AUCTION BRIDGE ORGANIZATION ENTERTAINED AT HOME OF MR. AND MRS. AYARS

A newly-organized auction bridge club held its first meeting Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ayars at 315 North Orange street. Three tables were provided, the players being: Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Barton, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Howeth, Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Wernette, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Lane of Burbank, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Puffer and the host and hostess High scores were made by A. A. Barton and Mrs. R. A. Puffer. At the close of play the guests were summoned to the dining room and seated around a beautifully-appointed table centered with candelabra, a pink color scheme dominating the candle shades, the bowls of sweet peas which flanked the centerpiece, and other decorative accessories. Delicious refreshments were served to an accompaniment of lively conversation, the club being composed of members who are very well acquainted and thoroughly congenial.

NEWS OF DONALD PACKER

Mrs. Stephen Packer, who recently returned from a visit to her son, Donald, who is completing at the State University the course which was interrupted by his A. E. F. service, reports that she found him working hard and thin in consequence, but in pretty good physical trim. He expects to take his last examination December 19th and to be graduated and come home in time for Christmas. Beyond that his plans are not perfected, but he may go east.

GOES TO BAKERSFIELD

Miss Hattie Hobbs, having resigned her position in the city treasurer's office, left on the Lark Saturday evening for San Francisco for a short holiday to visit friends, before assuming her new position, with Mr. Lilly at Bakersfield, by whom she was formerly employed when Mr. Lilly was in business in Glendale, at a very substantial raise in salary. Mrs. Hobbs is remaining with friends in Hollywood till after the holidays when she will join her daughter at Bakersfield.

NEW RESIDENTS

Mr. and Mrs. Willis, former residents of San Fernando, have come to Glendale to make their permanent residence. They have purchased two lots at 701 East Colorado, which they are improving with a nice bungalow. They had the misfortune to be parties to an auto collision when a light truck which Mr. Willis was driving and in which his wife and two children were passengers collided with an auto truck driven by Sam Yogi on East Broadway, near Maryland, Wednesday evening. Mrs. Willis was somewhat cut and bruised and was taken to the Glendale Sanitarium, but her injuries very fortunately proved to be quite superficial.

ATTENDS VALERA MEETING

Father O'Neill announced to his congregation Sunday morning that there would be no afternoon devotions as he was going to the Dr. Valera meeting at the Baseball Park in Los Angeles, that he was among the thousands turned away from the Shrine auditorium last Wednesday evening.

Father O'Neill said that he was American born and proud of it, but that he could not forget—nor was he ashamed—of his Irish blood nor of the little Irish mother who bore him

TIN CAN SOCIAL

The members of the Young People's Society of Christian Volunteers of the Seventh-day Adventist Church enjoyed a tin can social Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Jessie E. Cummings, 179 South Adams St. There were seventy or eighty young persons present, each one bringing a can or jar of fruit, vegetables or other article of food to be distributed to the needy or sick. About $15 worth of tin can produce was brought. The matter of locating worthy cases and distributing the food is under the supervision of appropriate committees.

Varied and interesting numbers comprised the program, followed by the playing of historical games.

Dainty refreshments were served at the close of the social occasion.

Mrs. Cummings, who has charge of the young people's work, has done much by her able leadership and cordial hospitality to endear all to herself.

SCHOOL NEEDS

W. F. TOWER WRITES APPRECIATIVELY OF MANUAL ARTS DEPARTMENT OF G. U. H.

Editor Glendale News:—

There is an organization in Los Angeles known as the Good-will Industries, that aims to help our Mexican population by providing work for them. Their motto is: "There is no help that helps people like the help that helps them to help themselves." If knowledge is proven and the aim of education is to fit the boys and girls of today to become the useful men and women of tomorrow, we should give to manual training our hearty support. It is helping the scholars to help themselves as no other course can, and is a decided advantage over the opportunities given to scholars 20 years ago. The Mechanical Department of our High School is one of the best investments the taxpayers have made, and I will venture to say that surprise and pleasure awaits anyone who takes the time to inspect this part of the school plant. They will find a well-equipped automobile school of instruction, machine shop, woodworking shop, mechanical drawing, etc., while the interest and activity of the boys at work shows beyond a doubt that they are there for business. The unfortunate part of of the present school arrangement, however, is that no provision is made—as in a great many other districts—for persons who desire these advantages, but daytime duties prevent. In other words, Glendale is unprogressive in not having night schools, in not opening its doors and utilizing this fine equipment to a better advantage. As a result of a short canvass over 30 persons signed a petition to the Board for a night school in automobile instruction. Apparently the matter received but scant consideration and was refused on account of lack of funds, although the cost is ultimately paid by the state. Part of these petitioners are young men to whom this opportunity would be a boon, it would give them a start in life, and to be denied which is an injustice. And until provision is made for such a night school, I ,for one, will not favor a large bond issue for assembly hall, etc., probably amounting to $50,000 or more. Conservation suggests better returns on the present investments first.

W. F. TOWER.

COLUMBUS AVENUE P.-T.A.

Columbus Avenue P.-T. A. held their regular monthly meeting Thursday and a most interesting meeting it proved to be.

Miss Yarnell, teacher of the third grade, briefly outlined the additive method of teaching the number combinations. Miss Yarnell had eight of her pupils present, all eager to illustrate her points. This talk will prove a big help to mothers who wish to give some assistance in home study.

Mr. White, superintendent of school, then followed with a most able address on the all interesting topic, "Americanization." Mr. White said that this was so broad a subject that it would be impossible to touch on any but a few of its phases. Mr. White believes that the right kind of education will be a cure for many of the evils and much of the unrest in the United States today. We must teach every child, every individual, and make it a part of him that we must have in this country just what our great Lincoln said in his Gettysburg speech, namely, "A government of the people, by the people and for the people. But, first of all, we must have government."

A brief business meeting followed Mr. White's address.

MRS. H. V. HENRY,
President.

THANKSGIVING

REV. C. L. CRIST PREACHES ON OBLIGATIONS OF CHURCH TO GOD AND MAN

A Thanksgiving service begun in the morning was continued in the evening at the First Methodist Church, the pastor completing his sermon of the forenoon, which he had been obliged to abridge, following a fine musical program. This included two anthems by the big vested choir of about thirty members, the anthems being "Praise Waiteth for Thee" by Ambrose and "The Heavens Are Telling" by Haydn. There were also a trio by Miss Isgrig and Messrs. Kuehne and Miller, a duet, "O Divine Redeemer" (Gounod), by Misses Zelma Lindley

WHAT EVERY WOMAN KNOWS

Commenting on Lady Astor's success as a campaigner—which many Englishmen are doing—one says of it: "She's learned Barrie's secret, 'What Every Woman Knows,' which means every man has a funny bone. For every laugh Lady Astor conjured she will get a vote."

Now if an American has to expound a Scotsman to an Englishman, so be it. Barrie's secret in "What Every Woman Knows" is not that every man has a sense of humor. In the first place, every man hasn't. It is true that in Barrie's play, Maggie finally makes John laugh, which was a feat not to be underrated, John being a Scotch member of parliament. But that wasn't Maggie Shand's secret, and in all her life she never let John know what it was. What every woman knows, and what mighty few Johns ever find out, is that she is her husband's superior and manages him without showing it.

He never finds it out. If he should, what every woman knows wouldn't be worth knowing, for he would rebel and spoil her game and his own with it. The richest part of what every woman knows is that her husband believes his management, and ideas, and successes are his own, and that she lets him believe it. That's where the joke comes in. That's where she has her sly laugh behind her hand when he takes a notion she has cunningly put into his head, and runs off with it as his own, and comes back boasting of what a hit he has made with it. That's what Barrie's Maggie Shand knew. That's "What Every Woman Knows."

If Lady Astor (who is an American) can make English voters laugh it always will help her. No doubt of that. But don't let those Englishmen think for a minute she is letting them in on what every woman knows. No woman does.—Exchange.

PLAN TO STOP HASTY MARRIAGES

Superior Judge Harris of Alameda county believes it is not difficult divorce that is going to solve the problems connected with generally lax conditions in marriage. His idea, gained from long experience in the courts is that putting bars in the way of hasty and ill-considered marriages is more apt to be efficacious. He has a plan for a new law including three provisions which he believes would remedy to a great extent the present situation. These provisions would be:

First—The publication for a suitable time in advance of the proposed marriage of a notice that is to take place, which would give the parties concerned opportunity to examine their own minds, and other persons a chance to report any impediment to the marriage.

Second—The filing of a statement that both parties to the marriage have had the law on the subject read to them and that they subscribe to it.

Third—The making of a statement in an affidavit by each party as to his or her financial condition, assets and income and, should either party request it, a statement as to the past history of the other.

This would certainly have a tendency to put an end to marrying as a lark or, while in a sentimental dream. It would give the contract enough formality and solemnity to make it seem serious to the most flippant. It would hedge it about with at least as much carefulness as we give to the transfer of a piece of real estate and the last provision would put a solid foundation under the bond or disclose a flimsy one.

It need not take away from any sentiment or tenderness to have a frank and definite understanding in advance concerning such a vital thing as income. It becomes a very important plank in the platform the very first hour after the ceremony when the bridegroom makes his first payment—to the minister.

There is no certainty that Judge Harris' plan would assure happiness or contentment or harmony to all who enter the matrimonial state, but his long observation of what constitute the common rocks in the flood of divorces that swamp the divorce courts in these modern days makes his idea worth considering.

WHAT DEATH IS

Death is nothing more or less than slipping back into your own subconsciousness, and so becoming greater and finer and more active—more useful, too, and with grander powers—than we ever had in our limited imperfect bodies. Life is nothing but an episode in our universal life.—Algernon Blackwood.

George Peters of 657 West Broadway, 20 years ago owned a 20-acre fruit ranch in that vicinity, from which he was unable to make a living. He enjoys the changed conditions which enable him to pass the days in peace and comfort.

A collision between an automobile going west on Wilson avenue and another coming south on Jackson St. occurred at the junction of the two thoroughfares in which both machines were somewhat damaged, but no one was hurt. One of the machines was driven by Mr. Scott, of La Crescenta, and was taken to the Barton Bros. garage for repairs. The other auto driver was said to be A. F. Barnes, of this city.

Considerable excitement was occasioned on Brand boulevard near Colorado Saturday afternoon, when a passing auto run over a vagrant dog. A call was at once turned in to police headquarters and an officer was dispatched to shoot the animal and put it out of misery. The dog bore no license tag and exhibited no marks of fine breeding. The Los Angeles firm by which he has been employed has promoted him to a more important work in the northern city. It is rumored that a romance is connected with the change and that he is to wed a pretty girl of the bay city whose acquaintance he made while in the hospital at the Presidio.

WOMEN NOT GOOD THROWERS

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 22.—Belated judicial recognition of the well-known fact that women lack control when it comes to throwing things, has at last been given.

It came in the suit of Jacob Ratzlaff against his wife, Sophia, for divorce.

Jacob testified his wife threw a bowl at him and it crushed his skull. Mrs. Ratzlaff contended she dropped the bowl, it broke, and Jacob picked up a piece and scratched his ear with it.

The court ruled that if Mrs. Ratzlaff actually did throw the bowl at her spouse it probably didn't hit him and that if it did, she probably didn't throw it at him.

So the judge compromised by eliminating cruelty from the complaint and giving Ratzlaff a divorce on grounds of desertion.

A new type of motor car thief has just been arrested in Buffalo. This man would follow and obtain the motor and car numbers of newly-purchased cars. He would then hasten to the Buffalo branch of the New York State automobile bureau and obtain a license for the car, using the proper numbers but a fictitious name and address. Three cars are said to have been stolen by this thief before the owners obtained licenses. With a license apparently made out properly the thief had little difficulty in disposing of the new machines.

San Luis Obispo County is shortly to vote on an issue of bonds amounting to a million and a half dollars to provide roads to correspond to the highways of neighboring counties.

The drill team and band of Los Angeles Lodge 99 are to be special guests at the regular meeting of Glendale Elks tonight at which more new members are to be initiated.

The housing shortage in Fresno city is so acute that the Fresno county chamber of commerce has been endeavoring to secure tents to shelter those who cannot secure other accommodations. Application was made to the war department for tents but it has none for sale. The chamber is now investigating the cost of small houses and tent cottages.

and Eva Thede, and solos by Miss Clara Midcalf and by Mrs. Roy Jillson, with fine organ numbers by Mrs. H. W. Randall.

The preacher took his text from the 5th chapter of Ephesians, 20th verse: "Give Thanks Always for All Things Unto God and the Father in the Name of Our Lord, Jesus Christ." He spoke of his endeavor at the previous service to record the temporal blessings for which his people should be thankful. He declared that thankfulness is an evidence of healthfulness, that it is the normal thing for a man to praise God. Continuing his reasons for thankfulness, he said in part:

"Our great Republic gives the best opportunity in the world for genuine optimism and thanksgiving. We have spoken of peace restored, though not in the way it will be finally brought about, but the big guns are not booming over there, our boys have most of them some home and God in His mercy did not have many of their lives taken so they have returned to us and we can thank God for that and for our homes. I know there is a great deal of sin and wretchedness, but I also know the church represents the happy homes in the community. We thank God for that and we thank God for the church itself, the institution that has saved to this generation the Bible. We thank God for the church that has preached the gospel, not always in its purity, but that has always been the witness that has come down through the ages telling of the Savior that was born and the salvation for the race.

"There are some folks in America that have very little appreciation of the church, possibly because of some of us. That makes me sad. I have asked myself a number of times this week, 'Does my life speak well for the church or do those who see me and know me best, do they say we do not have any use for the church because we have no use for him?' The church is not a perfect organization because it is made up of folks with human weaknesses; but the church is a divine institution brought into existence by Christ our Lord. It is precious in the sight of God and even though not perfect there is that in the heart of God that looks upon it with great pity and everlasting mercy. The church when organized had one of the twelve that was a traitor and honestly, I think perhaps the church today compares very well with the church back yonder. We are glad to believe that there are more than eleven out of twelve that are true to God.

"Whatever we may say about the church or the individuals that compose it, we must say it is the recognized goodness of our day, not that all of the good people in the world are in the church. I would to God they were. I never see such a good man or woman who is naturally religious without wishing with all my heart they were a part of the church.

"The church is necessary to first-class society. There is hardly a person here tonight that would be here were it not for the churches in Glendale. We recognize the fact that the church is a fundamental institution in this land."

In closing he urged his congregation to make this not only a thanksgiving time but a thanksliving time, and to resolve to be more genuine in home life, to be more loyal to their church; to resolve to be better American citizens and better fulfill their obligations to the foreign peoples who have come among us with such different ideas and ideals. Said he: "We must somewhow save them or we will not save ourselves. America has come to the place where unless we are going to save those who come among us they are going to cause us to be lost. The American Sabbath is going and when it is gone the church is gone."

REPUBLICANS MEET

(By United Press)

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 22.—Prominent Republicans of the first congressional district are to meet here today in the Hotel St. Francis to formulate plans for the Republican national campaign of 1920.

The purpose of the session, as described in the call issued jointly by Raymond Benjamin, Republican state chairman, and J. Emmett Olmstead, chairman of the First California District Republican Congressional committee, is "to consider and decide upon plans for the approaching Presidential election and to discuss matters of interest to the district."

SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTIST CHURCH ACTIVITIES

A young people's convention was held in the Seventh-day Adventist church Friday and Saturday, there being three sessions in all. Friday evening two papers were read, the topics being "Why Have a Society and Membership?" written by Ernest MacDonald and J. D. Baker, respectively. Discussion of the subject followed the readings, interspersed with music.

W. W. Ruble, H. G. Lucas and C. S. Prout all connected with he educational and young people's work of the denomination were present at the Sabbath morning service.

The choir under the direction of C. H. Jones rendered selections of pleasing melody and appropriate significance.

Prof. W. W. Ruble spoke of the condition of the world today as seen through the eyes of statesmen and others of unbiased judgment and discernment. Instances were cited of recent disturbances in the industrial and political realms where lawlessness seemed the controlling element. The only remedy for a sick civilization lies in Christ, Christianity and Christians. Church membership will save no one but the godly life and example of Christians who are like Christ will be the salt of the earth. Let the mind of Christ rule in the life of the individual and others will be won to Him.

The Spirit of Christ in the heart subdues the natural inclinations. Education cannot Christianize the world but Christianity can rightly educate. Knowledge of the truth cannot save unless that truth transforms the life.

"The Word was made flesh and dwelt among us." Let Christ dwell in your flesh—your mind.

During the afternoon session the following topics were discussed after the reading of original papers: Our goal and its meaning; reporting; the standard of attainment; and pleasures and entertainments.

The young people have nearly reached their goal at $1,000 for foreign missions for 1919.

Twelve of the boys and girls are studying the Bible by subjects under the leadership of Mrs. S. J. Townsend. Each week they meet to receive a new lesson and review the previous one. Examinations are given at intervals and those passing satisfactorily are granted certificates of attainment issued by the General Conference.

Much discussion was brought forth by the reading of the paper on "Reporting" by Miss Leta Fisher.

The beneficial effect of the convention will no doubt be felt for some time to come.

JAPAN MISSIONARY IS HEARD

The Rev. J. H. Rowe, who has spent thirteen years in Japan, gave a very interesting address before the Missionary Society of the First Congregational Church on Thursday afternoon. His theme was based on "Pray ye therefore the Lord of the Harvest that He thrust forth laborers."

He said that the greatest need in Japan Missions is "men," and the need is heart-rending. Neither the evangelistic work nor educational work, in both of which he has engaged, are providing the necessary Japanese workers to carry forward the great work. God must thrust forth the men in answer to prayer. There is magnificent giving for missions these days, but is there really the compassionate prayer that should be? If we are going to serve God, through missionary work, in the fullest sense, we must not only give our money but also our sympathy and prayer, he declared.

Mr. Rowe hopes no one will think that missionaries are responsible for what Japan is doing in China and Korea. While the world is putting the greatest emphasis on material things, Japan will be on top in the Orient. Despite the deep opposition to Christianity, within a hundred years Japan will be as much a Christian nation as America.

The "Japan Advertiser," an English periodical, has so uncovered the truth concerning Korea that the Japanese government has raised the ban on all periodicals, so that the truth is now vindicated by an extensive reform movement being instituted in Korea.
